Consultation Paper: 01/2021

هيئة تنظيم الخدمات العامة

Authority for Public Services Regulation

Public Consultation on Cyber Security standard and Regulation for of Electricity Metering System

13 July 2021

Introduction

The Authority have been developing standard and regulation to safeguard the metering system used in electricity sector in Oman against cyber attacks. The work included review of international best approaches, the current security measures applied by the licensees, and the drafted technical standards and regulation of the electricity metering systems developed by the Authority with the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Investment Promotion.

Public Consultation

The Authority would like to invite interested parties to review and provide their comments and observations on the following:

1. Electricity Metering System Cyber Security Standard.
2. Electricity Metering System Cyber Security Regulation.

The Authority is inviting responses to the consultation before the end of the consultation period which is 22nd August 2021. The comments should be provided by filling the table

No.	Document Title	Page	Section	Drafted Statement	Proposed Changes	Comment (Explain why the proposed changes is required)
1
2
3

Please add rows as requires

All responses are invited to be directed to:

Director of Technical Regulation
Authority for Public Services Regulation
P.O. Box 954, PC 133 Al Khuwair
Sultanate of Oman
Email: Consultations@apsr.om

If you require any further clarifications, please do not hesitate to contact the Authority through Tel. 24609700 or Email: Consultations@apsr.om.

The Authority will afford very careful consideration to all responses to the consultation and will incorporate changes in the updated version in light of responses received.